

Tom Hornig

Saxophonist Thomas Hornig has lived and worked as a session musician and music educator in Beirut, Lebanon for over 20 years.

In 1994, he was appointed Professor of Saxophone at Lebanon's National Conservatory of Music. In addition, Thomas is one of the founding teachers in "LeBam," a non-profit organization which provides performance opportunities and music education for young musicians.

A Graduate of the famous "Ecole Normale De Musique de Paris," Tom has toured throughout the World with Charbel Rouhana, Julia Boutros, Omayma Khalil, Ousamma Rahbani, Arthur Satyan, The D & G Band, Theirry Paul, Michel Bontemps, Yochko Seffer, Christian Rakoatoriviny, Manu Fraiman The NY Hotel - Euro Disney Band, Holland America Cruises Entertainment, and the 298th U.S Army Band in Berlin, to name a few.

Thomas is currently performing with Charbel Rouhana, Omayma Khalil, Raffi Mandalian, and the Lebanese National Conservatory Big Band on a regular basis.

Tom Horning is a Selmer Saxophone Artist for the Henri Selmer Paris Saxophone Company, Paris, France.